

God's Commandments: Respect God's Name

Exodus 20:7; 3:13-14;

Deuteronomy 10:17; Isaiah 9:6-7; Revelation 1:8; Psalm 22:3

Here's what happens...

God commands us not to misuse his name. The Bible is full of different names for God that describe his holiness, mightiness, and eternal nature. God's name captures who he is, so we respect it.

Bible Point:

We respect God's name when we talk.

"Jesus replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind'" (Matthew 22:37).

Family Together Time

Decorate your door frames as a reminder to respect God's name.

- Make a sign for each of the names of God your kids learned today (listed below).
- Younger kids can add drawings to show who God is. For example, they could draw a heart to show that God is loving, a tree to show that God is the Creator, and so on.
- Include these names:
 - I Am
 - God of gods
 - Lord of lords
 - Wonderful Counselor
 - Mighty God
 - Everlasting Father
 - Prince of Peace
 - Alpha and Omega
 - Almighty One
 - Holy
- Hang the signs around your door frames.

Rockpoint Kids News!

Our hearts are so full after an incredible week of outdoor VBS! Our kids learned...to trust Jesus in all things!

Jesus' power help us do hard things.
 Jesus' power gives us hope.
 Jesus' power help us be bold.
 Jesus' power lets us live forever.
 Jesus' power helps us be good friends.

- We are going back to posting two separate lesson videos for our Ten Commandment series, one for preschool and one for elementary. This way we can be more age-appropriate!
- We will continue to post a separate 2's lesson. An remember, the Bible story for two-year olds is the same for the month, but ways to reinforce the lesson and the Bible coloring page change each week.

Talk About This...

- If you could change your name, what would you change it to?
