A STUDY ON THE BOOK OF ACTS

WHEN CONFLICT COMES | ACTS 15:36-41

ROY FRUITS SENIOR PASTOR

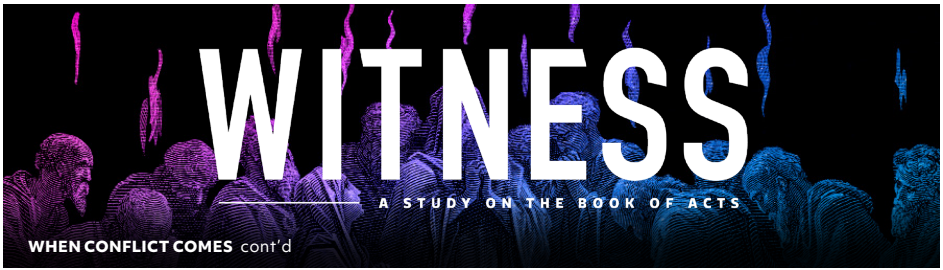

WHEN YOU DISAGREE

Always leave room for a different view

Humbly accept that each viewpoint has strengths and weaknesses

Avoid hard lines on non-sin issues

If you disagree, don't assassinate the other's character

Make a commitment to solving the disagreement and work together toward a solution

If you don't come to an agreement or compromise, then graciously agree to disagree
