Sunday Classes

OVERVIEW

Sunday classes for all adults meet weekly September through May. Drop in anytime.

Acts

Sundays, Continues through May | 9:15am

Lower Level, Rooms 1 & 2

Acts captures the joys and sorrows in the lives of first-generation Christians for 30 years after Jesus ascended to heaven. It describes the Holy Spirit's empowering of their intrepid mission to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and the world. Acts can also be called the Acts of the Holy Spirit, as it describes Jesus fulfilling His promise to dwell in the apostles through the Holy Spirit. Taught by Jan Wilke.

In the Beginning...What?!

Sundays, January through May | 9:15am

Lower Level, Room 3

How did everything we see get here? What's the best explanation for what we see around us? How does one's view of Genesis 1-11 inform how we view the Gospel? Through a video series, this class will focus on the first eleven chapters of Genesis both biblically and scientifically. The class is for middle school students through adults. Taught by Ray Taucher.

Life Groups

OVERVIEW

We like the 'group' concept because it implies community - and that is what we are after. One of the core values at Rockpoint is authentic relationships, and groups provide a context for that to happen. Sunday morning worship is the time for big-big group corporate worship. Community Groups provide a mid-size environment for people in similar life situations or with similar interests, and Life Groups provide a small group environment for truly deep relationships to develop as people grow in their faith together. Care Groups (see pages 25-27) are opportunities for those who are hurting to come and find community, support, and encouragement.

Living As A Witness

Are you concerned about those who don't yet have a personal relationship with Jesus? Do you want to share Jesus with people where you live, work or play? Sermon on the Mount by Jen Wilkin

Tuesday, Jan. 7 - Mar. 3 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Lower Level, Warehouse

While Jesus was on Earth, He modeled discipleship. Some of His most familiar teachings are recorded in the gospel of Matthew, chapters 5-7, called the Sermon on the Mount. Usually, we encounter His sermon in fragments, considering its subdivisions as complete teachings in their own right — a study on blessedness; a reflection on the Lord's Prayer; a discussion of religious devotion, money, ambition, and relationships. But, in this study, we will navigate these three chapters in Matthew as they were originally heard — as one cohesive, well-ordered message, intended to challenge us to think differently about what it means to be a follower of Jesus, a citizen of the kingdom of heaven. Come and learn from Jesus, just as His disciples did. There will be Bible study books and nine DVD teaching sessions. Taught by Kris Hoaglund

Cost: $15 (Free childcare with registration)

(No study March 10)

Our culture beckons us to succeed—to achieve excellence in our appearance, our performance, our careers, our marriages and our families. God Himself also beckons us to be women of excellence. But what exactly is He asking? What does it mean to be rooted in surrender, exemplified by obedience, and molded by discipline? Studying topics like these and many more, your eyes will be opened to know what it means to be a woman of excellence! Taught by Gretchen Stevenson

Cost: $10

Galatians by Kay Arthur

Tuesdays, Mar. 17 - May 12 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Lower Level, Warehouse

Tuesdays, Mar. 17 - May 12 | 6:15 - 8pm

Upper Level, Northpoint Room

(No studies Apr. 7)

As the gospel spread across the Roman world in the first decades after Jesus' earthly ministry, conflict arose. Jews and Gentiles believed the Gospel, and a struggle over what it meant to be a Christian began. What does it mean to live under grace? Do you have to keep the Law to be a Christian? All of it, or just part of it? Who is right? How will we know? God used an apostle to write a letter to some churches that were struggling with this issue, a letter that still speaks today. Its message clearly defines the relationship between law and grace, and how Christians live under grace, led by the Spirit, free from bondage. Taught by Julie Yorkovich
